

HENRY OFFERMAN,

Fulton and Duffield Streets, Brooklyn.

Every Previous Store Record Eclipsed by To-day's Offerings.

The fact that this store leads in many important departments to-day no one questions.—We do not aim to make name and fame by feats of enterprise culminating in occasional offerings of a single item or a limited quantity of goods at a low figure.—Such manoeuvres do not prove superiority, and cannot for a moment deceive thinking and prudent buyers.—We have gained and retain the patronage of the public by spontaneous efforts and uniformly low prices throughout the store.—Our leadership will again be evidenced on Monday by the following special sales on a grand scale:

A Furniture Sale.—There is not an intending furnisher within 100 miles who can afford to miss it.—The largest sale of the season in Crocker, Glassware, Silverware, Housefurnishing Goods, etc.—The Upholstery Store's surprises in Lace Curtains, Draperies and kindred stuffs.—A special sale of Silks, a special sale of Ribbons, a special sale of Shoes, a special sale of Hosiery.

If the right eyes fall on the items advertised here all the goods offered will have new owners this week.
